Gallery Paule Anglim is pleased to present Summer in Black & White a group exhibition of works by artists of the gallery.

The Black & White exhibition celebrates the wealth of possibilities found within the realm of a colorless palette. Drawings in ink and graphite by Robert Bechtle, Bruce Conner, Joan Brown, and Jess, photography by Lynn Hershman and John Priola and paintings by Canan Tolon, Anne Appleby and David Ireland are some of the b/w delights presented. This exploration of the graphic discipline extends to the conceptual designs of Paul Kos and Tom Marioni and the realized thought processes of Gay Outlaw and Dean Smith.
